Hank Aaron Brave In Every
The 2005 Peter Golenbock's book "Hank Aaron: Brave in Every Way" is about the magic of baseball written specifically for young readers. Golenbock helped me put into perspective a 1971 published book I recently read by Joel Cohen entitled "Hammerin' Hank of the Braves".

Hank Aaron: Brave In Every Way by Peter Golenbock
This was a nice introduction to Hank Aaron. Colorful paintings accompany the story. He was very brave and talented and he helped break the color lines in baseball. He set a good example for African Americans. He did not let racism stop him from being successful in baseball. This is a good book for young readers. Recommended for fans of Hank Aaron.
