8 Responses to Pandemic Moments #6: In Here, Out There. Deb R. says: April 20, 2020 at 12:35 pm Years ago as a struggling art teacher in New Orleans, I used to spend my Saturday mornings at the downtown library. I'd research the idea I was working on for a drawing and just browse whatever caught my fancy--magazines, stacks of art books, people.

"Out There" is the second song from Disney's 1996 animated feature, The Hunchback of Notre Dame. It began with a dark introduction by the main villain and antagonist, Claude Frollo, telling Quasimodo to stay up in the bell tower where he will not be reviled as a monster. This introduction featured a weaving of two counter melodies sung by them, with the use of the phrase "Stay In Here ...

It never was about the "virus," you know, any more than it's about "racial inequality." Oh yes, there IS a virus out there and some people have died from it; but the numbers — even the very fraudulent, inflated numbers — have not come anywhere CLOSE to justifying what's taking place throughout the entire planet right now.
